

Want to unlock the truth about God?

It takes real courage. First, you must ask yourself this question; If you are open-minded to all the ideas and theories about human origin and purpose, are you brave enough to include God?

You will be considered a rebel in the eyes of our society, a society that is afraid to believe there is a Power higher than itself because then it will have to worry about being held accountable for its behavior.

People don't like rules. We like to think freedom means the right to do almost anything we please, and we try to ignore the problems and suffering that often result.

The laws in the Bible were not meant to spoil our fun, but rather, to protect us. For example, drinking excessively can cause harm not only to oneself, but to others as well, and those who sleep around may incur or cause great emotional pain, as well as passing along or contracting diseases which could prove fatal.

Want to unlock the truth about God?

It takes real courage. First, you must ask yourself this question; If you are open-minded to all the ideas and theories about human origin and purpose, are you brave enough to include God?

You will be considered a rebel in the eyes of our society, a society that is afraid to believe there is a Power higher than itself because then it will have to worry about being held accountable for its behavior.

People don't like rules. We like to think freedom means the right to do almost anything we please, and we try to ignore the problems and suffering that often result.

The laws in the Bible were not meant to spoil our fun, but rather, to protect us. For example, drinking excessively can cause harm not only to oneself, but to others as well, and those who sleep around may incur or cause great emotional pain, as well as passing along or contracting diseases which could prove fatal.

Want to unlock the truth about God?

It takes real courage. First, you must ask yourself this question; If you are open-minded to all the ideas and theories about human origin and purpose, are you brave enough to include God?

You will be considered a rebel in the eyes of our society, a society that is afraid to believe there is a Power higher than itself because then it will have to worry about being held accountable for its behavior.

People don't like rules. We like to think freedom means the right to do almost anything we please, and we try to ignore the problems and suffering that often result.

The laws in the Bible were not meant to spoil our fun, but rather, to protect us. For example, drinking excessively can cause harm not only to oneself, but to others as well, and those who sleep around may incur or cause great emotional pain, as well as passing along or contracting diseases which could prove fatal.

And what of the future of all those innocent but unwanted babies?          Abortion?          Abuse?          Abandonment?          Every choice we make has consequences; some can place us in situations that we deeply regret. That's why God made His written Word, the Bible, available to us.	It is the ultimate manual for a healthy and fulfilling life. He shows you where bad choices have taken those who lived before you, and the purpose filled lives of those who looked to Him for help and guidance. Want a close, personal relationship with God? The rewards are infinite-- a meaningful life on earth, and a joyful eternity to follow. He is only a prayer away:	“Lord Jesus, please come live in my heart, forgive and cleanse me of my sins. I thank you for your precious gift of eternal life. Amen.” Now find a Bible-based church, and follow where He leads....
CUT--HERE
And what of the future of all those innocent but unwanted babies?          Abortion?          Abuse?          Abandonment?          Every choice we make has consequences; some can place us in situations that we deeply regret. That's why God made His written Word, the Bible, available to us.	It is the ultimate manual for a healthy and fulfilling life. He shows you where bad choices have taken those who lived before you, and the purpose filled lives of those who looked to Him for help and guidance. Want a close, personal relationship with God? The rewards are infinite-- a meaningful life on earth, and a joyful eternity to follow. He is only a prayer away:	“Lord Jesus, please come live in my heart, forgive and cleanse me of my sins. I thank you for your precious gift of eternal life. Amen.” Now find a Bible-based church, and follow where He leads....
CUT--HERE
And what of the future of all those innocent but unwanted babies?          Abortion?          Abuse?          Abandonment?          Every choice we make has consequences; some can place us in situations that we deeply regret. That's why God made His written Word, the Bible, available to us.	It is the ultimate manual for a healthy and fulfilling life. He shows you where bad choices have taken those who lived before you, and the purpose filled lives of those who looked to Him for help and guidance. Want a close, personal relationship with God? The rewards are infinite-- a meaningful life on earth, and a joyful eternity to follow. He is only a prayer away:	“Lord Jesus, please come live in my heart, forgive and cleanse me of my sins. I thank you for your precious gift of eternal life. Amen.” Now find a Bible-based church, and follow where He leads....