

THE NEXT MAN

When you wake up each day, what's the first thing that enters your heart as regards your relationship with people? Do you think whose life can I touch today or whose life would I tear apart to day?

A lot of folks around these days have thought the human life is so cheap, and that every other individual is no big deal. .

A lady kept malice with her neighbour for months without a cogent reason. Someday after sermon in church, she returned home and went ahead to say 'hi' to her neighbour, in the process, the neighbour informed the lady that a call came in for her through the neighbour's cell phone requiring her to come pick up a job offer

The question is if she had kept malice and distance as usual could she have been informed about her job by the same neighbour?

A lot of folks have lost the heart of love for their neighbours and those they come across each day, whereas Jesus, Him who died for our sins, said in Mt 22.38-39 This is the first and great commandment.

And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Obviously every one living on earth will at some point or another or almost every time, lavish his/her self with love, but we must love each person that comes our way daily, the Book of John reminded us saying in 1 John 4:7-8 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knows God.

He that loveth not knows not God; for God is love.

Reader, there is no better way to put it than to say, if love does not exist within you toward your fellow man, you do not know God and you're on a path to eternal damnation in hell fire. John 3 :16 says For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. So here it is again if we don't believe God's love for our lives and others and we don't reflect his love, we will perish in hell.

Dear reader, have you believed God to the point where you are now working fully in love to all men?

Cast your mind back to that individual who you have secretly kept in hatred in your heart, that person you despise greatly. Such hatred is destroying you.

Here is a chance to make it right with God and then you can be sure to love your neighbours and those you come across daily.

All you need to do now is to accept the love of Jesus by simply saying " Lord Jesus, forgive me for all the times I worked in hate and not loving those you brought my way, I accept your love today,as you are my Lord and personal saviour. come into my heart and let me be in you now and forever more. Amen

Congratulations, you have a new being now, make sure you begin to show love to those whom you hated and those you meet daily. God bless You.
