

The Great Exchange

As the world marked Easter, I pondered on the deep meaning of the season, and I could find one Unique answer - an exchange of places. How do I mean, A certain Man named Jesus Christ, following a divine purpose from God, was sent on a mission to rescue a world that was down and out in sin and hopelessness. The Mission was to climax with Jesus Christ giving himself up to trade places with the whole world of sin, lust, condemnation and hopelessness and amazingly, as tough as it was, this He did on the cross of Calvary, at a certain time on His journey to the cross, He said "I am come that Ye might have life " recorded in the Bible in the book of John 10:10.

He gave himself up to be humiliated by the ones he came to save, this they did ignorant of the fact that they were acting a divine script, He traded places with you and I, He was wounded because of our transgressions, He was tortured for our sins, the punishment which was meant for us before we could have peace was fully and heavily laid on Him, by Him being flogged we became healed of our sickness and diseases,(Isaiah 53:1-5) He gave up all His riches in Heaven and came down to the lowly places and villages, small towns and cities, suburbs and streets on earth and trekked across the lands with dust on His feet under all manner of weather conditions, all so that we will attain His riches that he left in heaven,

He said to us again, that for our sakes He became poor that we through His poverty might become rich, (2 Corinthians 8:9)He left them for us! Oh what Love, what a life, what an exchange and on the cross He died, so that we would have Life, so that we can live by faith on the works He had already finished!

What More, after 2 days of His death, on the 3rd day He rose from death and the grave and said all Power had been given to Him in heaven on earth and underneath the earth, He went to the lowest parts of the earth and worked Victory for us over the powers that be there!(Ephesians 4:9) He did it all, He took on our battles, He concerned Himself with our problems, He loved us to the point of dying for us, and He gave us Victory, He said, Behold I give unto you power (Luke10:19)..! Done!

----cut here----

The Great Exchange

As the world marked Easter, I pondered on the deep meaning of the season, and I could find one Unique answer - an exchange of places. How do I mean, A certain Man named Jesus Christ, following a divine purpose from God, was sent on a mission to rescue a world that was down and out in sin and hopelessness. The Mission was to climax with Jesus Christ giving himself up to trade places with the whole world of sin, lust, condemnation and hopelessness and amazingly, as tough as it was, this He did on the cross of Calvary, at a certain time on His journey to the cross, He said "I am come that Ye might have life " recorded in the Bible in the book of John 10:10.

He gave himself up to be humiliated by the ones he came to save, this they did ignorant of the fact that they were acting a divine script, He traded places with you and I, He was wounded because of our transgressions, He was tortured for our sins, the punishment which was meant for us before we could have peace was fully and heavily laid on Him, by Him being flogged we became healed of our sickness and diseases,(Isaiah 53:1-5) He gave up all His riches in Heaven and came down to the lowly places and villages, small towns and cities, suburbs and streets on earth and trekked across the lands with dust on His feet under all manner of weather conditions, all so that we will attain His riches that he left in heaven,

He said to us again, that for our sakes He became poor that we through His poverty might become rich, (2 Corinthians 8:9)He left them for us! Oh what Love, what a life, what an exchange and on the cross He died, so that we would have Life, so that we can live by faith on the works He had already finished!

What More, after 2 days of His death, on the 3rd day He rose from death and the grave and said all Power had been given to Him in heaven on earth and underneath the earth, He went to the lowest parts of the earth and worked Victory for us over the powers that be there!(Ephesians 4:9) He did it all, He took on our battles, He concerned Himself with our problems, He loved us to the point of dying for us, and He gave us Victory, He said, Behold I give unto you power (Luke10:19)..! Done!

If you had a father who, raised you as a male child from infancy, warded off all bullies at your tender age, raised you through all levels of your school, lavished you with your toys and necessities from His hard earned money, got you a house to move into at adulthood, secured a fantastic career job for you, spotted a beautiful lady for you to marry paid for all necessities and taught you all you need to do for a successful family and future life, what would you do in exchange? Won't you at least love, adore, respect, honour this old man to say the least? Won't you at least tell people all this man means to you and boast of His willingness to help anytime. If nothing else you would see how he exchanged His effort in all for your sake. He took your place and allowed you to live well and do well. This is exactly what Jesus did for you, He has done it all. What would you do for Him,

He has taken your place, would you respect, honour and love Him, will you sing His Praise, will you live for Him? I just can't emphasise it enough but Jesus has done it all for You, look on Him and be Saved, look on Him and cease from your struggles, look on Him and live a full, life. Look on Him, look on Him, don't despise Him while there's time. Tomorrow may be too late. Jesus, Jesus has taken your pain, your shame, your struggles, your poverty, your sicknesses, your challenges, it's all laid out for you in His Word. All you need is to accept Him, accept Him personally into your life and believe on Him all through and all the works He has finished for you by His death on the cross of calvary and His resurrection. You already have the Victory, but you can only start walking in it when you say the prayer below from your Heart, don't commonize this message, don't take all of this for granted, it was written for your sake. Pray this prayer from your heart:

Lord Jesus, thank you for dying for my sins and for taking my place, today I accept you as my Lord and Personal Saviour, I receive the grace to worship, live for you and Hold on to your word. Thank you for making me your child and washing my sins away, in Jesus name, Amen.

That is it, that is the clincher! You just shamed the enemy of your soul, the devil, the one who fights your peace and progress. Hold on to Jesus by being in the company of fellow believers always, start a new life, go to a church that believes the Bible truly and wholly, pray always to strengthen your relationship and see His power, then engage in regular word study to do His bidding and evangelise. Stay away from anything you know will defile your conscience, live a holy life.

He exchanged His life for you, now play your part...

God bless you.

For enquiries and feedback

Email: victor_ochim@yahoo.com

Remain in the life Christ Gave you.

If you had a father who, raised you as a male child from infancy, warded off all bullies at your tender age, raised you through all levels of your school, lavished you with your toys and necessities from His hard earned money, got you a house to move into at adulthood, secured a fantastic career job for you, spotted a beautiful lady for you to marry paid for all necessities and taught you all you need to do for a successful family and future life, what would you do in exchange? Won't you at least love, adore, respect, honour this old man to say the least? Won't you at least tell people all this man means to you and boast of His willingness to help anytime. If nothing else you would see how he exchanged His effort in all for your sake. He took your place and allowed you to live well and do well. This is exactly what Jesus did for you, He has done it all. What would you do for Him,

He has taken your place, would you respect, honour and love Him, will you sing His Praise, will you live for Him? I just can't emphasise it enough but Jesus has done it all for You, look on Him and be Saved, look on Him and cease from your struggles, look on Him and live a full, life. Look on Him, look on Him, don't despise Him while there's time. Tomorrow may be too late. Jesus, Jesus has taken your pain, your shame, your struggles, your poverty, your sicknesses, your challenges, it's all laid out for you in His Word. All you need is to accept Him, accept Him personally into your life and believe on Him all through and all the works He has finished for you by His death on the cross of calvary and His resurrection. You already have the Victory, but you can only start walking in it when you say the prayer below from your Heart, don't commonize this message, don't take all of this for granted, it was written for your sake. Pray this prayer from your heart:

Lord Jesus, thank you for dying for my sins and for taking my place, today I accept you as my Lord and Personal Saviour, I receive the grace to worship, live for you and Hold on to your word. Thank you for making me your child and washing my sins away, in Jesus name, Amen.

That is it, that is the clincher! You just shamed the enemy of your soul, the devil, the one who fights your peace and progress. Hold on to Jesus by being in the company of fellow believers always, start a new life, go to a church that believes the Bible truly and wholly, pray always to strengthen your relationship and see His power, then engage in regular word study to do His bidding and evangelise. Stay away from anything you know will defile your conscience, live a holy life.

He exchanged His life for you, now play your part...

God bless you.

For enquiries and feedback

Email: victor_ochim@yahoo.com

Remain in the life Christ Gave you.