

THE HEARTBEAT OF GOD

The nature of a man's heart determines the output of his life. Its basic, its clear, for out of the heart proceeds the issues of life. Proverbs 4:23. Have you stepped back to consider how your heart is viewed before God? Have you ever asked yourself what the Father in heaven, the creator of the universe thinks of you, when He looks into your heart? Can your character resonate with his word, does your heart passionately beat and literally yearn for Him and His presence?.

Are you concerned with humanity and how it has derailed? Are you concerned with reaching out to the poor and needy? Do you desire to pray so much till you feel His presence so strong around you and see His mighty works effortlessly before you, is God your passion, Is your creator your desire, Is His pleasure the joy and rejoicing of your heart? Are you reading this and all of it seems not to make meaning to you, or has never concerned you or even crossed your mind? You may be feeling this way because you have lost touch with Him, perhaps you were once close to God and believed His word and ways then you encountered some difficulty and considered He wasn't there for you, you may feel as though you are in a comfort zone and reaching out for God is not your 'thing'. You need a reality check, your heart is not in line with Him, Your heart has lost its passion for the reality of life and eternity and has focused on the transient, brief and tangible things of this life, money, clothes, business, work, cars, you name it.

----cut here----

THE HEARTBEAT OF GOD

The nature of a man's heart determines the output of his life. Its basic, its clear, for out of the heart proceeds the issues of life. Proverbs 4:23. Have you stepped back to consider how your heart is viewed before God? Have you ever asked yourself what the Father in heaven, the creator of the universe thinks of you, when He looks into your heart? Can your character resonate with his word, does your heart passionately beat and literally yearn for Him and His presence?.

Are you concerned with humanity and how it has derailed? Are you concerned with reaching out to the poor and needy? Do you desire to pray so much till you feel His presence so strong around you and see His mighty works effortlessly before you, is God your passion, Is your creator your desire, Is His pleasure the joy and rejoicing of your heart? Are you reading this and all of it seems not to make meaning to you, or has never concerned you or even crossed your mind? You may be feeling this way because you have lost touch with Him, perhaps you were once close to God and believed His word and ways then you encountered some difficulty and considered He wasn't there for you, you may feel as though you are in a comfort zone and reaching out for God is not your 'thing'. You need a reality check, your heart is not in line with Him, Your heart has lost its passion for the reality of life and eternity and has focused on the transient, brief and tangible things of this life, money, clothes, business, work, cars, you name it.

What will matter at the end of your life is not the structures that were constructed or your achievements in life. What will matter is the life you lived for Him, the times you lined up with His word, the time you gave your life to Christ and lived for Him! If you have not yet surrendered your life to Christ, if you don't have a passion for God, now is time for you. Truth is if you don't have passion for Him now, you can't see Him in the after life, heaven is not for you, if you don't accept Him into your life now, that you may begin to please him.

You don't want to be found in hell, spending your eternity, you just don't! You better don't!

Say this prayer.
Lord Jesus I accept you came to die for my sins. Please come into my life as my Lord and saviour and give me grace to live for you. Now and forever in Jesus name. Amen

Now begin to grow your new found faith, study the bible daily, pray from your heart to Him on a consistent basis on any issue, He will answer you. Above all, be a soul winner, share the Gospel of God, the word of God, to those around you.. Remain rapturable. God bless you. Amen

What will matter at the end of your life is not the structures that were constructed or your achievements in life. What will matter is the life you lived for Him, the times you lined up with His word, the time you gave your life to Christ and lived for Him! If you have not yet surrendered your life to Christ, if you don't have a passion for God, now is time for you. Truth is if you don't have passion for Him now, you can't see Him in the after life, heaven is not for you, if you don't accept Him into your life now, that you may begin to please him.

You don't want to be found in hell, spending your eternity, you just don't! You better don't!

Say this prayer.
Lord Jesus I accept you came to die for my sins. Please come into my life as my Lord and saviour and give me grace to live for you. Now and forever in Jesus name. Amen

Now begin to grow your new found faith, study the bible daily, pray from your heart to Him on a consistent basis on any issue, He will answer you. Above all, be a soul winner, share the Gospel of God, the word of God, to those around you.. Remain rapturable. God bless you. Amen