

LIVE RIGHT

We should realise that there's always a time when we may drift from our underlying basic principles and values - if we actually have them, but we must remain open to correction.

The Bible tells us in Job 5:17 " Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty". We must realise that for our paths and lives to be successful we must be humble enough to receive correction, for we see that " Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall." (Proverbs 16:19).

For it is a pleasurable thing to be taught and corrected by God. For more often than not, when you heed the correction, he instructs you further in the way that you should go. One of the most important ways to live guided by God and to live rightly is by being open to the correction that God gives when you have wronged Him and gone astray from His will. As a matter of fact the Bible tells us that " For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Proverbs 3:23)
