He sat heavily and lazily in his wheelbarrow while trying to think through what had just happened. Suddenly a bright light shining in his eyes jolted him back to reality, but this time, reality appeared to be heaven.

He awoke and saw himself at the back of a long queue, just then his whole life flashed before his racing mind, he then realised the fight he had moments earlier before his final sleep on planet earth. He had earlier vowed while as he gave his life to Christ a year ago, never to engage in any fights. But there he was. While his head was trying to come to terms with the reality of his death and his appearance in eternity, his name was called to appear before the great white throne, for judgement...

Dear reader, what will your own case be when you appear before the judgement seat of God? Will you be thinking and reminiscing on the good time you spent on earth while saving lives and souls for God, will you remember the times when you showed love to the sick, hungry and homeless and taught them the ways of Jesus even in hard times and deprived yourself for others sake OR will you be reminded by the unconfessed sins, the anger and bitterness, the killing, the lies and every other negative vice you can think of that applies to you at the moment.

See, the truth is with the rate of violence and killing and mass deaths we see at every turn of the world and every break of the day, it is clearly obvious that the world is nearing its end. The Bible tells us in 2 Timothy 3:1 " This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. " Will you be remembering the times spent in sin and evil or will you remember the glorious days you lived your life for Christ and you actually experienced the joy of salvation? Think it through the choice is yours and the time is right, do not live in regrets tomorrow and in eternity it may be too late then.

HEAVEN AND HELL IS REAL!
Make your ways right with Jesus, He'll soon come to take His saints to heaven to reign with him forever. I assure you, you don't want to miss it.

Say this prayer
"Lord Jesus, come into my heart today and fill my life with your love. I am sorry for all my sins and I ask to be washed by your blood and give me the grace to live above sin daily"

Receive grace to live above sin and live with the consciousness of God's presence. Get yourself rooted and planted in God and you'll never be disappointed. Jesus is coming soon!.
