

A Special Friend

Is there anyone in your life that gives you full attention whenever needed? Someone so special that is always ready to attend to your needs when you call? I reckon that even your wife or husband or family member or best friend may not always be present to attend to that which is of utmost importance to you per time.

This is due to the basic fact that all humans are limited in terms of capacity to be everywhere per time, to be of full knowledge in any or all fields. It is such a practical impossibility.

However, do you also think that man just came about into being by happenstance? The scientists tell us of the evolution of man, even if we were to believe them, there must have been an eternal, supernatural force or event that that must have have sparked off the process. Something must have happened eternally to bring about man, and that is where the creation story by God of man comes into place.

Is it possible that your creator, God in heaven will not know about you to attend to your needs and desires, is it possible that when you call him, he wouldn't be available to attend to your every need?

I want to boldly introduce to you a friend, that sticks closer than a brother (Proverbs 18:24), I want to bring to your notice the friend that never forsakes you, (Joshua 1:5), a friend that shows you new worlds(Jeremiah 33:3), a friend that delivers (psalm 34:17-18). Space and time will fail me to speak of all His credentials that I know of or can understand, but He is one that wows and amazes me constanly.

I don't know what struggles you have now but I want to introduce you to Jesus Christ who says Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden...(Matthew 11:28-30) and you will find rest for your souls.

He is waiting, all you need do is say this prayer and mean it from the depth of your heart.

Lord Jesus, Come into my heart today, forgive me from my sins, I welcome you as my Lord and saviour, give me grace to live for you, now and till eternity. Thank you for hearing and answering me, in Jesus name I pray. Amen!

Done deal! Congratulations. Now you are in partnership, with a new friend and the best thing that can happen to your life, because this same friend, doesn't just guarantee you peace and rest on earth but a blissful and amazing eternal stay in heaven, when your time on earth is done! Hold Jesus close daily! Study the Bible, there is His word. Pray without ceasing, there you talk with Him and have strength and wisdom and answers, keep the fellowship and company of believers, there they keep you in the faith and attend your needs above all, leave for Him and share the good news, share Jesus with someone as you get to know Him from your personal walk and work with Him from these keys above. God richly bless you. Stay in Christ Jesus and remain rapturable.

I love you.
