

VANITY AND BREVITY

Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun? (Eccl 1:2-3).

Have we realised how too much of a circle life actually is? Take for example, a man starts his week by going to work, tries to meet all the demands at work from monday to friday, takes the weekend to rest and catch up on some other stuff lost while at work, resumes again on monday and the circle is repeated. Some other way, it may be a child born who learns how to sit, crawl, stand, walk, run....goes to school while growing, graduates from school, gets a job, marries, gives birth to children and suddenly or with age, dies. which is the ultimate end of man.

In the midst of this vacuum of a circle of life, there must be a stronghold that continuously reassures oneself of his destination at the end of time.

This same stronghold must be able to guarantee protection, safety and blessings so that a man's work which is all vanity under heaven can be enjoyed. For as the preacher said in Eccl 2:24 "There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God"

The Bible also reminds us in James 4:14 "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away" .

Dear reader, as much as we strive for life, it is never guaranteed that we can see the next day, except if God wills it so and grants us such privilege. We must make up our minds that when we pass from this world, we will be taken up by the arms of our loving creator into His dwelling place. For there is no higher calling or no other profitable approach to life and eternity.

Remember " And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:" Hebrews 9:27
There is a pending judgement for every one that dies, and this judgement determines where our eternity is spent.

Life is full of vanity and is very brief, lay hold on the salvation offered by Jesus Christ, the son of God who came in the form of flesh as man, that he might die for the sins of the world and grant us salvation and redemption from sins.

Dear reader, you too can be free from a life of regret, you can be saved from the consequences of vanity and sudden death. You can live your life for God and then escape the judgement that leads to eternity in hell fire.

Say this prayer, Lord Jesus, I am sorry for living my life as I pleased, with the pleasures of this world. I accept You today as my Lord and Saviour. I believe you came to die for my sins. Come into my life today and give me a new heart to serve you and live for you. Thank you for saving my soul, in Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

Wow, so glorious...heaven rejoices over you now as you prayed that prayer.

Beloved get a complete Bible and study it daily through and through, as you ask for help and interpretation from God so you can understand the journey of a believer. It is the manual for one who lives in Christ Jesus. Attend a bible believing church where you can pray together with other christians and fellowship together and uphold each other through God's grace, love and word.

Congratulations, God bless you as you live daily and at all times in the consciousness of eternity and God's presence over you. God bless you.
