

Which version of the Bible is right?

2 Timothy 3:16
ALL Scripture is given by inspiration of God.
There are so many different versions of the Bible available to us today that it can be a little confusing,

There is no “right” or “wrong” version. It just depends on which version speaks to you. I generally teach out of the King James Version as it is the most universally accepted. But I often use other versions to clarify a verse .

Here is a verse that was a little hard to understand in The KJV Philippians 3:12
Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
Now let's look at that same verse in The Living Bible

I don't mean to say I am perfect. I haven't learned all I should even yet. But I keep working toward the day when I will finally be all that Christ saved me for and wants me to be.

Now isn't that just a little easier to understand? Let's look at another scripture that almost everyone is familiar with.

John 3:16 KJV
For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

John 3:16 KJV
For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

New King James Version For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that who-ever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

The Good News Bible For God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son , so that every one who believes in Him may not die but have eternal life.

The Living Bible For God Loved the world so much that He have his only Son so that anyone who believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.

The wording may be a little different in these versions but the meaning comes across loud and clear in each . God Loves us He wants us to return to Him someday . He made a way for us. By sending His only Son to pay our way. And all you have to do is Believe in Him. Are you ready?

Then Pray this prayer:
Dear God, I repent of my sins, I take Jesus Christ as my Savior. Come in to my heart and teach me to live for thee.

In the Holy and precious name of Jesus
Amen.

If you prayed this prayer the next step is to find a Bible believing church. If I can be of any Assistance please email me at Word4today@att.net And most important prayerfully read your Bible,
Any version.
