

Who is Jesus?

Jesus is the Son of God. He was born of the a virgin, named Mary.

“ Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.” (Isaiah 7:14)

He died on the cross.

“After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.” (Matthew 27:31)

Why did Jesus have to die?

God wanted a relationship with us. However, we could never be in relationship with him because God cannot look upon anything that is unholy. Since the “original sin” by Adam and Eve, humans have always had a “sin nature.” Also, God did not want us to have to die an eternal death, which is the penalty for sin. In order to have a relationship with us, and to save us from this fate, God put all of our sin on Himself. He came to us in human form, in the man, Jesus. When Jesus died on the cross, all of our sins died with him. We were forgiven, and therefore, able to choose to be in relationship with God.

“God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.” (2 Corinthians 5:21)

“Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.” (Gal 3:13)

Who is Jesus?

Jesus is the Son of God. He was born of the a virgin, named Mary.

“ Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.” (Isaiah 7:14)

He died on the cross.

“After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.” (Matthew 27:31)

Why did Jesus have to die?

God wanted a relationship with us. However, we could never be in relationship with him because God cannot look upon anything that is unholy. Since the “original sin” by Adam and Eve, humans have always had a “sin nature.” Also, God did not want us to have to die an eternal death, which is the penalty for sin. In order to have a relationship with us, and to save us from this fate, God put all of our sin on Himself. He came to us in human form, in the man, Jesus. When Jesus died on the cross, all of our sins died with him. We were forgiven, and therefore, able to choose to be in relationship with God.

“God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.” (2 Corinthians 5:21)

“Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.” (Gal 3:13)

Who is Jesus?

Jesus is the Son of God. He was born of the a virgin, named Mary.

“ Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.” (Isaiah 7:14)

He died on the cross.

“After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.” (Matthew 27:31)

Why did Jesus have to die?

God wanted a relationship with us. However, we could never be in relationship with him because God cannot look upon anything that is unholy. Since the “original sin” by Adam and Eve, humans have always had a “sin nature.” Also, God did not want us to have to die an eternal death, which is the penalty for sin. In order to have a relationship with us, and to save us from this fate, God put all of our sin on Himself. He came to us in human form, in the man, Jesus. When Jesus died on the cross, all of our sins died with him. We were forgiven, and therefore, able to choose to be in relationship with God.

“God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.” (2 Corinthians 5:21)

“Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.” (Gal 3:13)

He was resurrected three days later. “Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you.” (Matthew 28:7) He ascended into Heaven to sit at the right hand of God.	The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. (Hebrews 1:3) “Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.” (John 1:12) "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)	Why should I say “yes” to Jesus? Those who do not say “yes” or “no” to Jesus, but instead say, “I don’t know.” Or “Maybe later,” are in effect saying “no.” "He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me, scatters.” (Luke 11:23)
CUT--HERE
He was resurrected three days later. “Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you.” (Matthew 28:7) He ascended into Heaven to sit at the right hand of God.	The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. (Hebrews 1:3) “Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.” (John 1:12) "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)	Why should I say “yes” to Jesus? Those who do not say “yes” or “no” to Jesus, but instead say, “I don’t know.” Or “Maybe later,” are in effect saying “no.” "He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me, scatters.” (Luke 11:23)
CUT--HERE
He was resurrected three days later. “Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you.” (Matthew 28:7) He ascended into Heaven to sit at the right hand of God.	The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. (Hebrews 1:3) “Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.” (John 1:12) "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)	Why should I say “yes” to Jesus? Those who do not say “yes” or “no” to Jesus, but instead say, “I don’t know.” Or “Maybe later,” are in effect saying “no.” "He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me, scatters.” (Luke 11:23)